

Wild Trout Trust Annual Get-Together 2010

on Saturday 10 April 2010 at

Town Hall, High Street, Hungerford, West Berkshire RG17 0NF

Programme

- 09.30 Assemble with tea & coffee.
- 10.00 Welcome: Edward Twiddy, Chairman of WTT Trustees and Robert James, Trustee of the Town & Manor of Hungerford
- The WTT year that was and the year to come:
Shaun Leonard, Director
Paul Gaskell, Trout in the Town Manager
Tim Jacklin, Conservation Officer
Andy Thomas, Conservation Officer
- 11.10 Does fencing mean more trout?
Dylan Roberts, Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust
- 11.55 Habitat improvement in the Kennet catchment
Graham Scholey, Environment Agency
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.30 Guided walks on the Town & Manor water of the Dun and Kennet
- 16.00 Tea in the Town Hall.
- 16.30 A bit from Jon Beer.
Jon Beer.
- 17.00 Fishing in an anorak.
Edward Twiddy.
- 17.30 Drinks Reception, hosted by Cain Bio-Engineering Ltd and the Town & Manor of Hungerford.
- Sat Evening Informal meet-up in Hungerford – plans on the day.

Sunday 11 April 2010 – an opportunity to see the EA/NE funded work of Cain Bio-Engineering Ltd on the River Lambourn at Hunt's Green, courtesy of the Bagnor Estate. If you wish to join us, please let Christina at WTT know when you book for the Saturday – places are limited and allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

To book a ticket for the AGM on Saturday, please send a cheque for £10, made payable to The Wild Trout Trust to the office (PO Box 120, Waterlooville PO8 0WZ), or telephone 023 9257 0985 to pay by credit card.